To the woman ...

who finds meaning in her church and is drawn to its fellowship,
whose life is packed full of activity and obligations,
who struggles with loneliness or meaningless tasks, who is juggling jobs and family and trying to be faithful to both,
who seems overburdened with the traditional woman's role of caregiver, who feels she has gifts which are wasted or underdeveloped, who needs a supportive community to affirm her own sense of purpose and commitment to God.

Opportunities to Participate

Every woman in the church is welcome to become part of United Methodist Women. Consider joining an existing group or forming a new group of women of similar age with a common interest and purpose so that the women of UPUMC can continue to support local mission and the global ministries of the United Methodist Church.

Deborah Circle

Although most members are over 65, the Deborah Circle welcomes women of all ages who are mission-minded and want to nurture friendships. They enjoy fellowship and hands-on local mission projects such as making tray favors for Methodist Hospital. Deborah Circle meets at the church the second Monday of each month at 10 a.m. in the Caldwell Room.

Mary Martha Circle

Dedicated women with young adult children gather in January to plan their monthly volunteer projects for the year. They involve local mission partners such as Wesley-Rankin, Amigos Days, C. C. Young, Bethlehem Center, and Methodist Hospital.

Wesley Women

A diverse circle for all ages and stages, Wesley Women are single, married, widowed, divorced; long-time members of UPUMC and newbies. They are united by their love of the Lord and a preference for evening gatherings. They are caring and sharing women who are willing to study, work, worry and worship TOGETHER. They meet once a month at 7 p.m. (usually on the first Monday) in members homes.

Lydia Circle

Comprised of working professionals of all ages who are dedicated to serving the Lord, the Lydia Circle meets the second Monday of the month in the the Fisk Miles Library at UPUMC. They always have room at the table for those seeking to grow in their faith.
